Why Griffith University?

Griffith University has established a reputation as one of Australia's leading universities, with campuses positioned in Queensland's fastest growing area - the Brisbane-Gold Coast corridor. The University caters for more than 37,000 students, which includes more than 8,800 international students from over 119 countries. It has more than 3,000 staff.

Griffith University is the ideal location to combine study with a great lifestyle. With five campuses in the dynamic Brisbane-Gold Coast region you have ready access to Queensland's capital city's social, cultural, and recreational facilities and the attractions of the state's top surfside tourist destination.

There are numerous advantages to studying at Griffith, including the diverse and flexible courses available. The interdisciplinary nature of a Griffith University degree is one of the University's hallmarks, and its courses challenge rigid academic structures. Smaller class sizes create a caring and personalized atmosphere that adds to the approachability of staff. Griffith also has a history of strong ties with industry to give graduates a competitive edge once they enter the workforce.
