SERVICES - 2023

INTRODUCTION

The information provided in this document was created by Marlene Canel, the guidance counsellor at Champlain Regional College - Lennoxville.

Are you a student in ALC or Visual Arts and wondering what direction you should take in this field? Are you curious about what to do after your DEC? What kind of tasks and work environments can you expect? Is there a future in this sector? Do you have the qualities needed to succeed? Let's explore different education programs and careers avenues for you!

The job market in the arts, languages and communication fields offers a wide range of opportunities, often unrecognized. University training in this field prepares you for a wide variety of jobs, calling on the development of specific and a wide range of interests. How do you find your way in this diverse job market? How can you prepare for these professions?

This document presents eight fields within the Culture and the Arts domains. You will find a description of each field, with professional fields related to it as well as university programs.

We also invite you to reflect on your Holland Interest Profile (RIASEC) by completing this short QUIZ. Each field of study has their typical Holland Interest Profile. It can help you to see which fields are the best for you.
